Firm Overview

For more than forty-five years, Nichols Kaster has enjoyed a sterling reputation as a top employment and consumer plaintiffs' litigation firm. We have represented hundreds of thousands of employees and consumers nationwide on a variety of legal issues arising under both state and federal laws.

The Firm's National Wage and Hour team represents employees in class and collective actions seeking to recover unpaid wages in circumstances where employers misclassify workers or otherwise fail to compensate them for all hours worked, pursuant to minimum wage and overtime rates, or as required by contract. The Firm also represents groups of employees seeking to recover unpaid commissions and unlawfully pooled tips.

Nichols Kaster represents workers and consumers who have endured discrimination and who have had their civil rights violated on either an individual or class-wide basis. The Firm's employment group is also dedicated to assisting individual employees in Minnesota and surrounding states with a variety of legal needs, including addressing discrimination; harassment; retaliation; accommodation and leave issues; contract, severance, and non-compete disputes; as well as defending against licensure complaints.

The Firm also assists employees and retirement plan participants in protecting their 401(k) investments and other benefits. Nichols Kaster challenges breaches of fiduciary duty relating to excessive fees, underperforming funds, imprudently managed accounts, and failure to properly pay benefits.

- Forced-Placed Insurance
- Credit Reporting
- Improper Background Checks
- Student Loans
- Predatory Lending
- Interest Overcharges and Misapplication of Loan Payments
- Billing Practices
- Deceptive Practices
- Debt Collection Violations

Nichols Kaster is dedicated to protecting consumer rights through its National Consumer Class Action team. Over the years, the Firm has represented consumers with a variety of violations, primarily on a class-wide basis. The Firm led the way in forced-placed flood and hazard litigation and with claims under the Fair Credit and Reporting Act.

Nichols Kaster also represents whistleblowers and relators who have "blown the whistle" on illegal activity. These cases involve the reporting of possible government fraud, mishandling of toxic substances, violations of tax or securities laws, discrimination in education, failure to provide access to public facilities, and more. Nichols Kaster represents individuals who have brought claims on behalf of the government against entities who have defrauded the government under the False Claims Act (also known as “qui tam” lawsuits).

No matter the type of claim, Nichols Kaster helps everyday people seek redress against big corporations.

Accolades

The NATIONAL TRIAL LAWYERS AND ALM have named Nichols Kaster, PLLP the Employment Rights Law Firm of The Year. According to an ALM spokesperson,

[T]he lawyers and law firms selected this year from more than 250 submissions have demonstrated repeated success in cutting-edge work on behalf of plaintiffs over the last 15 months. They possess a solid track record of client wins over the past three to five years. The 2020 Elite Trial Lawyers finalists delivered results for clients across a wide range of cases with some of the most difficult sets of facts, very challenging circumstances, often filing uphill battles for years. Many were up against some of the most prominent defense firms on the globe... The winners stood out based on the uniqueness and importance of their cases as well as the results delivered for their clients.

The U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT has continued to name Nichols Kaster as a Best Law Firm® and honored individual lawyers at the Firm as Best Lawyers®, consecutively since 2012. LAW360 has listed Nichols Kaster as a top plaintiffs’ employment law firm, and MINNESOTA LAWYER has declared it one of Minnesota’s top 100 firms. In 2019, nine of Nichols Kaster’s attorneys were named as part of the 500 leading plaintiff employment lawyers on Lawdragon.com’s list of the nation’s best employment lawyers. In 2023, twelve of Nichols Kaster’s attorneys were named Super Lawyers® and four Rising Stars by SUPER LAWYERS MAGAZINE. Steve Smith and Matthew Frank were announced as the 2017 Minnesota Lawyers of the Year. On Martindale Hubbell, the firm has a 5 out of 5 peer rating.

Together the National Law Journal and LAW.COM named Nichols Kaster a top 50 firm for Elite Trial Lawyers “that are doing the most creative and substantial work on the plaintiffs side.” Introducing America’s Elite Trial Lawyers, THE NAT’L LAW J. (Sept. 8, 2014).

In 2009, Nichols Kaster was ranked as one of the top ten busiest FLSA firms in the country by Litigation Almanac 360, which conducted a study of over 500,000 federal cases and received input from more than 200 law firms. Nichols Kaster was the only plaintiffs’ firm in the top ten.

Judicial Recognition

Nichols Kaster provides employees and consumers with significant results, including substantial settlements, trial victories, and ground-breaking determinations on important legal questions. The Firm's attorneys fight hard for their clients, vigorously litigating complex actions against top national defense firms. Courts have recognized Nichols Kaster's successes and extensive experience and have appointed the Firm as lead or co-lead counsel on hundreds of class and collective actions. Below are just a few examples of this recognition.

"...Class Counsel is one of the relatively few firms in the country that has the experience and skills necessary to successfully litigate a complex ERISA action such as this."

The Honorable Judge Michael H. Watson

Karpik v. Huntington Bancshares Inc., No. 2:17-cv-1153 (S.D. Ohio, Feb. 18, 2021).

And it's not inappropriate to say, at this juncture, how deeply appreciative the Court is of the lawyering here, and I'm appreciative of the lawyering in two most important respects. One, there's been outstanding advocacy here. I have, um, wrestled with the matters in dispute, found them most challenging, and counsel has behaved throughout with both high ethics and zeal and true advocacy on the part of their clients, and I don't want that to go without saying I appreciate it. At the same time, and equally important, we sometimes lose track in advocacy of the desirability of resolving differences. You people have proved yourselves skilled negotiators willing to compromise, realistic, and the Court honors that as well.

The Honorable Judge William G. Young

Moitoso v. FMR, LLC, et al., No. 1:18-cv-12122-WGY (USDC MA., Jan. 12, 2021).

Class Counsel displayed skill and determination. It is unsurprising that only a few firms might invest the considerable resources to ERISA class actions such as this, which require considerable resources and hold uncertain potential for recovery.

The Honorable Judge Catherine C. Eagles

Sims v. BB&T Corp., No. 1:15-cv-841 (M.D.N.C., May 5, 2019).

[C]lass counsel achieved a strong result through skillful litigation and settlement negotiation. After filing a detailed complaint and amended complaint, working through a substantial discovery process, litigating a motion to dismiss, and undergoing mediation and settlement discussions, class counsel obtained a settlement of $14 million and a mandatory request for proposal that will help ensure quality management of class members' 401(k) funds down the road. Regarding quality of representation, the litigation and settlement appear by all measures to be the work of skillful and experienced attorneys with significant expertise in the ERISA context.

The Honorable Judge Nathanael M. Cousins

Johnson v. Fujitsu Tech. & Bus. of Am., Inc., No. 5:16-cv-03698 (N.D. Cal., May 11, 2018).

The high quality of Nichols Kaster's representation strongly supports approval of the requested fees. The Court has previously commended counsel for their excellent lawyering. The point is worth reiterating here. Nichols Kaster was energetic, effective, and creative throughout this long litigation. The Court found Nichols Kaster's briefs and arguments first-rate. And the documents and deposition transcripts which the Court reviewed in the course of resolving motions revealed the firm's far-sighted and strategic approach to discovery . . . Further, unlike in many class actions, plaintiffs' counsel did not build their case by piggybacking on regulatory investigation or settlement . . . The lawyers at Nichols Kaster can genuinely claim to have been the authors of their clients' success.

The Honorable Judge Paul A. Engelmayer

Hart v. RCI Hospitali Holdings, Inc., No. 09 Civ. 3043, 2015 WL 5577713 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 22, 2015)

Claimant's counsel were not merely professional, but highly qualified and knowledgeable and were superb in gathering the evidence and set it forth so that an arbitrator would fully understand the import of each exhibit and the answer to each question in the face of equally qualified adversaries who had also shown themselves to be fully prepared. All counsel consistently interacted with co-counsel and opposing counsel in a professional manner recognizing the high level of everyone else's great competence and preparedness.

The Honorable Michael S. Jordan (Ret.) (Arbitrator)

Contreras v. Prime Comms Retail, LLC, AAA No. 01-22-0001-1326 (Jan. 30, 2024)

I want to commend all of you for the excellent work that you did in conjunction with the special master and the court's technical advisor . . . I'm satisfied that this settlement is fair and reasonable given all the risk and expense of further litigation

Honorable Judge Kathryn Vratil

Sibley v. Sprint Nextel Corp., No. 08-cv-2063 (D. Kan. Dec. 20, 2018)

[T]he attorneys at Nichols Kaster, PLLP are qualified, experienced, and competent, as evidenced by their background in litigating class-action cases involving FCRA violations. . . . As noted above, Plaintiffs' attorneys are experienced and skilled consumer class action litigators who achieved a favorable result for the Settlement Classes.

The Honorable Chief Judge Deborah Chasanow

Singleton v. Domino's Pizza, LLC, 976 F. Supp. 2d 665 (D. Md. 2013)

[T]his case's early resolution can partly be attributed to counsel's experience representing thousands of employees in wage and hour cases for thirty years, particularly within the oil and gas industry.

The Honorable Judge Dale Drozd

McCulloch v. Baker Hughes Inteq Drilling Fluids, Inc., No. 1:16-cv-00157 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 2, 2017)

Plaintiffs retained counsel with significant experience in prosecuting force-placed insurance cases, and other courts in this district have appointed them class counsel in force-placed insurance cases . . . Counsel have worked vigorously to identify and investigate the claims in this case, and, as this litigation has revealed, understand the applicable law and have represented their clients vigorously and effectively.

The Honorable Magistrate Judge Laurel Beeler

Ellsworth v. U.S. Bank, N.A., No. C 12-02506, 2014 WL 2734953 (N.D. Cal. June 13, 2014)

Thank you for all of your good work here. I know that it was really an extraordinarily complex case, and so well done.

The Honorable Judge Kathryn Vratil

Harlow v. Sprint Nextel Corp., No. 08-2222 (D. Kan. Dec. 10, 2018)

[Nichols Kaster has] considerable experience in litigating wage and hour class and collective actions.

The award . . . follows efficient effort on the part of Class Counsel to achieve a sizeable recovery for the Class Members.

The Honorable Magistrate Judge Katherine Menendez
Allen v. All Temporaries, Inc., No. 16:cv-04409 (D. Minn. Feb. 14, 2018)

[T]he quality of representation, as evidenced by the substantial recovery and the qualifications of the attorneys, is high. As then District Judge Gerard E. Lynch recognized, Nichols Kaster is “a reputable plaintiff-side employment litigation boutique with a nationwide practice and special expertise prosecuting FLSA cases.”

The Honorable Judge Sidney H. Stein
Febus v. Guardian 1st Funding Grp., LLC, 870 F. Supp. 2d 337 (S.D.N.Y. 2012)

Counsel provided zealous, proficient advocacy through more than four years of litigation.

The Honorable David T. Schultz
Rao v. St. Jude et al., No. 19-cv-923 (D. Minn. Dec. 27, 2023)

[T]his court finds that counsel possess more than sufficient experience to represent Plaintiffs fairly and adequately in reaching a fair and equitable settlement in this FLSA collective action . . . The parties are represented by competent and reputable counsel.

The Honorable Judge Tony N. Leung
Mayfield-Dillard v. Direct Home Health Care, No. 1:16-cv-3489 (D. Minn. Dec. 18, 2017)

I think it was just some very efficient and good work on the part of the plaintiffs’ attorney that brought you to the point [of settlement].”

The Honorable Judge Josephine L. Staton
Urakhchin v. Allianz Asset Mgm’t of Am., L.P., No. 8:15-cv-01614 (C.D. Cal. July 27, 2018)

Counsel’s experience in vigorously litigating class/collective wage and hour actions, plus their experience with this industry were essential in obtaining this favorable and efficient result.

The Honorable Magistrate Judge Jonathon E. Hawley
Woods v. Club Cabaret, Inc., 1:15-cv-01213, 2017 WL 4054523 (C.D. IL May, 17, 2017)

The settlement was the result of arm's-length negotiations between experienced counsel. Class Counsel is well known by this Court for their expertise in wage and hour litigation.

The Honorable Judge Michael J. Davis
Burch v. Qwest Commc'ns Intl., No. 06-03523 (D. Minn. Sept. 14, 2012)

I want to say that both sides here have performed at an admirable level. And I wish that the lawyers of all cases would perform at your level. I say this to both of you, because you have you have been of assistance to the Court.

The Honorable Judge William Alsup
Hofstetter v. Chase Home Fin., LLC, No. 10-01313 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 7, 2011) (transcript)

The Court finds that counsel is competent and capable of exercising all responsibilities as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class.

The Honorable Judge Richard H. Kyle
Bible v. Gen. Revenue Corp., 12-CV-1236 (D. Minn. Jan. 7, 2014)

Over the past two years, Class Counsel has been active in all stages of litigation and has particularly benefitted Plaintiffs through capable handling of motion practice. For example, Plaintiffs obtained summary judgment on a key issue involving the Morillion doctrine and defeated summary judgment on Defendants' de minimis defense.

The Honorable Judge Virginia A. Phillips
Cervantez v. Celestica Corp., No. 07-729, 2010 WL 11465133, *7 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 29, 2010)

[T]he combined experience of Plaintiffs' counsel as well as the fact that employment law, particularly the representation of employees, forms a large part of both the firm and counsel's practice persuades this Court that the law firm of Nichols Kaster, PLLP, and its attorneys Steven Andrew Smith and Anna P. Prakash will more than adequately protect the interests of the Class Members.

The Honorable Magistrate Judge Tony N. Leung
Fearn v. Blazin' Beier Ranch, Inc., No. 11-743 (D. Minn. Jan. 30, 2012)

Plaintiffs have shown good cause under Rule 16(b) because Plaintiffs' new counsel has shown the necessary diligence. Plaintiffs brought on Nichols Kaster, an experienced employment law firm of high repute as lead counsel in May 2012. Since that time, Plaintiffs have made a concerted effort to comply with this Court's orders and deadlines.

The Honorable Magistrate Judge Tony N. Leung
Alvarez v. Diversified Main. Sys., Inc., No. 11-3106 (D. Minn. Aug. 21, 2012)

Plaintiffs' counsel are qualified, experienced attorneys that are fully capable of conducting this class action litigation . . . they are highly qualified, knowledgeable attorneys that are willing to invest the resources necessary to fully prosecute this case.

The Honorable Judge Gary Larson

Karl v. Uptown Drink, LLC, No. 27-CV-10-1926 (Minn. Dist. Ct. Nov. 17, 2010)

Plaintiffs' Counsel are qualified attorneys with extensive experience in class action and wage and hour litigation and are hereby appointed as Class Counsel.

The Honorable Judge Susan Richard Nelson of the U.S.D.C. D. Minn.:

Alvarez v. Diversified Main. Sys., Inc., No. 11-3106 (D. Minn. Feb. 14, 2013) (appointing class counsel and preliminarily certifying the class for settlement purposes).

However, the difficulty of the legal issues involved [and] the skill and experience of Plaintiffs' counsel in FLSA cases . . . make an enhancement of the lodestar amount appropriate in this case.

The Honorable Judge Thomas D. Schroeder

Latham v. Branch Banking & Trust Co., No. 1:12-cv-00007, 2014 WL 464236 (M.D.N.C. Jan. 14, 2014)

The Court must consider the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the actions, counsels' experience in handling class actions and other complex litigation and claims of the type asserted in the present action, counsels' knowledge of the applicable law, and the resources counsel will commit to representing the class. Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(g)(1)(C). After reviewing the record, the Court is satisfied that the firms of Nichols Kaster, PLLP and Stueve Siegel Hanson LLP satisfy these criteria and will adequately represent the interests of the class as counsel.

The Honorable Judge Kathryn Vratil

Sibley v. Sprint Nextel Corp., 254 F.R.D. 662, 677 (D. Kan. 2008)

The Arbitrator also notes that the briefs submitted by Claimant's counsel and the performance at the hearing by Claimant's counsel were of a very high quality.

Arbitrator Joel Grossman, Esq.

Green v. CashCall, Inc., JAMS Arbitration No. 1200047225 (JAMS Aug. 22, 2014)

Plaintiffs' counsel are adequate legal representatives for the class. They have done work identifying and investigating potential claims, have handled class actions in the past, know the applicable law, and have the resources necessary to represent the class. The class will be fairly and adequately represented.

The Honorable Judge Susan M. Robiner

Spar v. Cedar Towing & Auction, Inc., No. 27-CV-411-24993 (Minn. Dist. Ct. Oct. 16, 2012)

[Defendant] doesn't question whether Plaintiffs are represented by qualified and competent counsel, and it's obvious that they are. Plaintiffs' are represented by a national law firm, Nichols Kaster, that specializes in employment and class action law.

The Honorable Judge Larry Alan Burns

Norris-Wilson v. Delta-T Grp., Inc., 270 F.R.D. 596 (S.D. Cal. 2010)

Notable Litigation Results

| Settlement Results

In Bowlby-Williams v. Google, No. 4:21-cv-9942 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 8, 2023), the court granted final approval of a settlement of $8,369,000 for workers who asserted that Google's failure to include the value of vested restricted stock units in their overtime rate of pay denied them overtime wages. The court recognized the skill and risk involved in pursuing the novel claim against a large corporation.

In Sullivan et al. v. County of Ramsey, No. 62-cv-21-651 (Minn. Dist. Ct., Aug. 9, 2022), the Ramsey County Board of Commissioners approved a $1.455 million agreement to resolve discrimination claims brought by eight current and former correctional officers at the Ramsey County Adult Detention Facility. The correctional officers filed claims in February 2021 after they were segregated when former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin was processed and held at the jail. The officers asserted claims of discrimination and hostile work environment based on their race and the color of their skin, as well as retaliation.

In Moitoso v. FMR LLC, 1:18-cv-12122 (D. Mass. Jan. 22, 2021), the court granted final approval of the parties' $28.5 million settlement in a case where plaintiffs alleged the defendants breached their fiduciary duties in violation of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA").

In Karpik v. Huntington Bancshares, Inc., 2:17-cv-1153 (S.D. Ohio Feb. 18, 2021), the court granted final approval of the parties' $10.5 million settlement, resolving plaintiffs' claims against defendants under ERISA.

In Bhatia v. McKinsey & Co., Inc., 1:19-cv-01466 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 17, 2021), the court granted final approval of the parties' $39.5 million settlement for a class of current and former participants in the McKinsey & Company, Inc. Profit-Sharing Retirement Plan and the McKinsey & Company, Inc. Money Purchase Pension Plan.

In Reetz v. Lowe's Companies Inc., 5:18-cv-00075 (W.D.N.C. September 9, 2021), the court granted final approval of the $12.5 million settlement with defendant Lowe's Companies, Inc. for a class of current and former participants in the Lowe's 401(k) Plan.

In Baker v. John Hancock Life Insurance Co. (U.S.A.), 1:20-cv-10397 (D. Mass. Sept. 30, 2021), the court granted final approval of the parties' $14 million settlement in a case where plaintiffs alleged the defendants breached their fiduciary duties in violation of ERISA.

In Abdul-Ahad v. Associated Courier Inc. (d/b/a Street Fleet) 20-cv-0607-HB (D. Minn, Feb. 26, 2020), the court granted final approval of the parties' $450,000.00 gross settlement, finding the settlement to be fair, reasonable, and adequate and further awarding plaintiffs' counsel's attorneys' fees, expenses, and service awards to the named plaintiffs.

In Bowers v. BB&T Corp., No. 1:15-cv-00732 (M.D.N.C. May 6, 2019), the court granted final approval of the parties' $24 million settlement in a case where plaintiffs alleged the defendants breached their fiduciary duties in violation of ERISA.

In Moreno v. Deutsche Bank Americas Holding Corp., 1:15-cv-09936 (S.D.N.Y. March 1, 2019), the court granted final approval of the parties' $21.9 million settlement in a case where plaintiffs alleged the defendants breached their fiduciary duties in violation of ERISA.

In Sibley v. Sprint Nextel Corp., No. 08-cv-2063 (D. Kan. Dec. 20, 2018), the court granted final approval of a commissions settlement for retail store sales employees totaling $30.5 million.

In Harlow v. Sprint Nextel Corp., No. 08-2222 (D. Kan. Dec. 10, 2018), the court granted final approval of a commissions settlement of $3,650,000 for business channel sales employees.

In Urakhchin v. Allianz Asset Mgmt. of Am., L.P., 8:15-cv-01614 (C.D. Cal. July 30, 2018), the court granted final approval of the parties' $12 million settlement in a case where plaintiffs allege the defendants breached their fiduciary duties in violation of ERISA.

In Johnson v. Fujitsu Technology Business of America, Inc., No. 5:16-cv-03698 (N.D. Cal. May 11, 2018), the court granted final approval of the parties' $14 million settlement, and approved a class of current and former participants in the Fujitsu Group Defined Contribution and 401(k) Plan

In Vongkhamchanh v. All Temporaries Midwest, Inc., 17:cv-00976 (D. Minn. Apr. 27, 2018), the court approved a settlement for health care workers who would receive over 84% of their unpaid overtime wages, explaining that the Firm's "considerable experience litigating wage and hour class and collective actions, and informed opinions of the fairness of the settlement" provided support for approval of the hybrid state and federal action.

In Main v. American Airlines, Inc., 4:16-cv-00473 (N.D. Tex. Feb. 21, 2018), the court granted final approval of the parties' $22 million settlement for a class of current and former participants in the American Airlines, Inc. 401(k) Plan.

In Allen v. All Temporaries, Inc., No. 16:cv-04409 (D. Minn. Feb. 14, 2018), the court granted final approval of a Rule 23 class action and FLSA collective action for settlement of home health workers' overtime claims. The court noted that "Class Members will recover over 99% of their unpaid overtime wages after the deduction for attorneys' fees, costs, and a class-representative service payment."

In Mayfield-Dillard v. Direct Home Health Care., No. 1:16-cv-3489 (D. Minn, Dec. 18, 2017) the court approved the parties' joint motion for settlement approval finding that the settlement was a substantial benefit to the collective as the eligible individuals who accept the settlement will receive all their alleged overtime wage loss. The court found that "counsel possess more than sufficient experience to represent Plaintiffs fairly and adequately in reaching a fair and equitable settlement in this FLSA collective action" and that "[t]he parties are represented by competent and reputable counsel."

In McCulloch v. Baker Hughes Inteq Drilling Fluids, Inc., No. 1:16-cv-00157 (E.D. CA, Nov. 22, 2017), the court approved the settlement finding that $3,000,000 was fair and reasonable and reflected a settlement payoff of 92% of the estimated potential value of the class members' claims. The judge commended Nichols Kaster stating, "[T]his case's early resolution can partly be attributed to counsel's experience representing thousands of employees in wage and hour cases for thirty years, particularly within the oil and gas industry."

In Henderson v. 1400 Northside Drive, Inc., No. 1:13-cv-03767 (N.D. Ga. Mar. 17, 2017), the Firm achieved a $1,360,000 settlement on the eve of trial on behalf of 37 male exotic dancers who were misclassified as independent contractors and required to pay to work through the imposition of mandatory house fees, fines, and tip-outs of other workers.

In Vaughan v. M-Entermt Props., LLC, No. 1:14-CV-914 (N.D. Ga. May 16, 2017), the court approved a $1,100,000 settlement a week before trial for 28 female exotic dancers who the Court previously found were misclassified as independent contractors and were required to pay to work through fines, fees, and tip-outs to other workers.

In Febus v. Guardian First Funding Group, LLC, 90 F. Supp. 3d 240 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 4, 2015), plaintiffs brought a motion to enforce a wage and hour settlement from which one of the individual defendants defaulted. The court ordered the defendant pay the amount due, imposed an additional thirty percent penalty on the amount due, and awarded interest. The court noted that Nichols Kaster had been "attempting, in vain, to collect," and emphasized that defendant "cannot avoid his contractual obligations because he has decided that the settlement terms no longer suit his interests."

In Hart v. Rick's Cabaret Int'l, Inc., No. 09 Civ. 3043, 2015 WL 5577713 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 22, 2015), the court granted final approval of a class-wide $15,000,000 gross settlement, finding the settlement to be fair, reasonable, and adequate and further awarding plaintiffs' counsel's attorneys' fees, expenses, and service awards to the named plaintiffs and discovery participants.

In the consolidated lawsuits of Casey v. Citibank, N.A., No. 5:12-cv-0820 (N.D.N.Y. Aug. 21, 2014) and Coonan v. Citibank, N.A., No. 1:13-cv-00353, 2014 WL 4120599 (N.D.N.Y. Aug. 21, 2014), the court granted final approval of an approximately $110,000,000 settlement on behalf of settlement classes who were force-placed with flood or hazard insurance by Citibank, N.A. The settlement also provides substantial injunctive relief, forbidding Citibank and its affiliates from accepting commissions or any other form of compensation in connection with force-placed insurance for a period of six years, places limits on the amount of insurance coverage that Citibank may require borrowers to maintain, and requires Citibank to offer class members the opportunity to reduce their flood insurance coverage if Citibank had increased their coverage amount to an amount in excess of the amount required under federal law. The court found the settlement to be "fair, reasonable, and adequate, in the best interests of the Settlement Classes" and overruled nine objections.

In Bible v. General Revenue Corp., No. 12-cv-01236 RHK (D. Minn. June 27, 2014), the court granted final approval of a $1,250,000 settlement on behalf of approximately 134,000 class members, more than double the statutory cap for a Fair Debt Collection Practices Act class action.

In Farmer v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 5:11-cv-00935 (W.D. Tex. Oct. 18, 2013), the court granted final approval of the parties' multi-million-dollar settlement with significant prospective injunctive relief, finally certifying a class of 25,000 Texas mortgagors who had been sent letters requesting proof of hazard insurance in violation of the language of their deeds of trust, and appointing Nichols Kaster as class counsel.

In Singleton v. Domino's Pizza, LLC, No. 8:11-cv-01823 (D. Md. Oct. 2, 2013), the court approved the parties' $2,500,000 million settlement for a class of over 50,000 under the Fair Credit Reporting Act in a case where plaintiffs alleged that the defendant employer had improperly procured consumer reports on employees and applicants and had failed to comply with the pre-adverse action notice requirements of the Act.

In Ulbrich v. GMAC Mortgage, No. 11-CIV-62424, 2013 WL 8692404 (S.D. Fla. May 10, 2013), the court granted final settlement approval and appointed Nichols Kaster as class counsel for a 2,000+ nationwide class. The case involved claims against GMAC Mortgage, LLC and Balboa Insurance Services, Inc. relating to force-placed wind insurance.

In Eldredge v. City of Saint Paul, No. 09-2018 (D. Minn. Aug. 29, 2011), plaintiff Eldredge reached a settlement of his case that was the second largest paid by the City of Saint Paul in an employment lawsuit.

In Hofstetter v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., No. C- 10-01313, 2011 WL 1225900 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 31, 2011), Nichols Kaster was appointed class counsel for four classes encompassing approximately 40,000 mortgagors against Chase Bank. In the same case, Nichols Kaster secured an approximately $10,000,000 settlement for the classes. Hofstetter, 2011 WL 5545912 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2011).

| Appellate Achievements

In Oman v. Delta Air Lines, Inc., 2021 WL 351960 (9th Cir. Feb. 2, 2021) and the companion case Ward v. United Airlines, Inc., 2021 WL 345578 (9th Cir. Feb. 2, 2021), the Ninth Circuit held that California's wage statement and pay timing requirements apply to flight attendants who are based at California airports, rejecting the airlines' argument that compliance with these state laws would impermissibly burden interstate commerce. This ruling followed a decision from the California Supreme Court on certified questions, which held that California's wage statement and pay timing statutes apply to interstate employees who work less than 50% of their time in any one state if the employee's base of operations is in California. See Oman v. Delta Air Lines, Inc., 9 Cal. 5th 762 (2020); Ward v. United Airlines, Inc., 9 Cal. 5th 732 (2020).

In Brotherston v. Putnam Investments, LLC, 907 F.3d 17 (1st Cir. 2018), the First Circuit reversed the district court's grant of defendants' directed verdict motion, holding that plaintiffs had met their burden of proving loss causation, and that plaintiffs' damages model constituted a viable measurement of the losses suffered by Putnam's employees as a result of defendants' fiduciary breaches. The defendant filed a writ of certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court, and in Putnam Investments, LLC v. Brotherston, No. 18-926, 2020 WL 129535 (U.S. Jan. 13, 2020), the Supreme Court denied defendants' petition. The case is remanded to the district court for continued trial proceedings under the First Circuit's holding that the burden to prove causation is on defendants and plaintiffs presented sufficient evidence of losses to the plan as a result of defendants' mismanagement.

In Ray v. County of Los Angeles, 935 F.3d 703 (9th Cir. 2019), the Ninth Circuit ruled for the plaintiffs on two distinct issues. First, the Court upheld the District Court's ruling that the County of Los Angeles was not entitled to Sovereign Immunity as an arm of the state for its role in implementing the In-Home Supportive Services program for homecare workers in Los Angeles County. In so holding, the Court declined to overturn long-standing Ninth Circuit precedent outlining the "arm of the state" doctrine, and it determined that, under the existing five-factor test, four of the factors weighed against immunity for the County. In the second part of its ruling, the Court reversed the District Court's holding regarding the effective date of Department of Labor regulations governing homecare workers employed by third parties, holding that the regulations at issue were effective January 1, 2015, despite industry challenges to the regulations that were successful at the district court level but ultimately unsuccessful on appeal.

In Wingate v. Metropolitan Airport Commission A19-0226 (August 19, 2019), Wingate appealed the district court's summary judgment finding in favor of Metropolitan Airport Commission (MAC) dismissing the whistleblower claim. The court of appeals reversed the district court's decision ruling the evidence presented by Wingate including his positive performance reviews, his supervisor's remarks, MAC's promotion patterns, and a sergeant's similar report of retaliatory conduct support an inference that Wingate's engagement in protective activity was the true reason that MAC did not promote him to sergeant, thus raising a material fact dispute on the issue of pretext.

In Moore v. City of New Brighton, A18-2111, (July 29, 2019), the parties filed cross appeals where Moore appealed the district court's summary judgment decision and the city appealed the district court and the Court of Appeals subject-matter jurisdiction over the case. In a published decision, the Minnesota Court of Appeals reversed the district court's summary judgment decision, finding that the evidence showing the city maintained the administrative, home-bound leave for a period so long and so inconsistent with its purported reason for commencing the leave creates a material fact dispute as to whether the city's actions "penalized" the sergeant under the Minnesota Whistleblower Act and whether the city's reason is pretextual. Further, both the district court and the court of appeals rejected the city's jurisdictional argument and held that both courts have subject-matter jurisdiction over Moore's claim under the Minnesota Whistleblower Act.

Frost v. BNSF Railway, Co., 914 F.3d 1189 (9th Cir. 2019), was tried to a jury in Montana in December 2016. Mr. Frost alleged that he was retaliated against when BNSF terminated his employment after he reported suffering from PTSD. Mr. Frost was diagnosed with PTSD after he was nearly struck by an oncoming train while repairing a section of the track after his supervisor released track authority but failed to inform him and his fellow crew members. Pursuant to the Defendant's request, the jury was provided an honest belief instruction and a defense verdict resulted. Mr. Frost appealed, arguing that the instruction was error because it conflicted with the clear language of the Federal Railway Safety Act ("FRSA") and granted the jury a short-cut to rule for BNSF while ignoring evidence of retaliation. The Ninth Circuit agreed. In a unanimous decision, the Ninth Circuit definitively held there was no requirement that FRSA plaintiffs separately prove discriminatory intent under the FRSA's contributing factor standard, and thus the instruction was error. The Ninth Circuit reversed the trial verdict and remanded for a new trial.

In McKeen-Chaplin v. Provident Savings Bank, FSB, 862 F.3d 847 (9th Cir. 2017), the Ninth Circuit reversed the district court's grant of summary judgment to the defendant, finding that the defendant's mortgage underwriters did not fit within the administrative exemption to the Fair Labor Standards Act and remanding for judgment in the plaintiffs' favor on the issue.

In Clark v. Centene Co. of Texas, L.P., 656 F. App'x 688 (5th Cir. 2016) (per curiam), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit affirmed a lower court decision that appeals nurses do not fall within the administrative or professional exemptions of the FLSA overtime requirements.

In Carter v. HealthPort Technologies, LLC, 822 F.3d 47 (2d Cir. 2016), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit vacated and remanded the district court's dismissal of plaintiff's complaint, finding that plaintiff's had Article III standing to bring this action regarding the excessive fees for providing copies of plaintiffs' medical records charged by defendants, and stating that "because the complaint alleged that each name plaintiff "through [her or his] counsel" had "paid" the charges demanded for the records, and that the "ultimate expense" was borne by the plaintiffs, the complaint plausibly alleged that plaintiffs, as principals acting through their agents, had been injured by the alleged overcharges."

In Monroe v. FTS USA, LLC, 815 F.3d 1000 (6th Cir. 2016), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit upheld the lower court's denial of defendant's motion to decertify the collective and affirmed the trial verdict in favor of plaintiffs. The Sixth Circuit ruled that Plaintiff's presentation of representative testimony was appropriate at trial for proving liability for the collective and estimated average approach to calculating damages.

In Bible v. United Student Aid Funds, Inc., 799 F.3d 633 (7th Cir. 2015), reh'g. en banc denied, 807 F.3d 839 (7th Cir. 2015), cert. denied, 136 S. Ct. 1607 (2016), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit reversed the district court's dismissal of plaintiff's complaint against a student loan guarantor for wrongfully charging collection fees on a defaulted student loan, finding that plaintiff's claims for breach of contract and for violations of the RICO Act were not preempted by the Higher Education Act, and stating that "a guaranty agency may not impose collection costs on a borrower who is in default for the first time but who has timely entered into and complied with an alternative repayment agreement."

In Perez v. Mortgage Bankers Assoc., 135 S. Ct. 1199 (2015), the United States Supreme Court ruled unanimously in favor of a group of employees represented by Nichols Kaster. The Court upheld a Department of Labor interpretation granting minimum wage and overtime compensation for mortgage loan officers.

In Karl v. Uptown Drink, LLC, 835 N.W.2d 14 (Minn. Aug. 14, 2013), the Minnesota Supreme Court ruled that under Minnesota law, employers cannot require employees to reimburse them from their tips for items such as cash register shortages, unsigned credit card receipts, and customer walk outs. The Court also found that employees do not have to show that because of the deductions their wages fell below the minimum wage in order to prove a violation of Minn. Stat. § 181.79. In this case, the plaintiffs were over 750 employees who worked at three different bars/night clubs in Minneapolis. At a jury trial in 2011, the plaintiffs prevailed on their record-keeping and certain minimum wage claims, but lost on the unlawful deductions claims. Nichols Kaster appealed the deductions issue, and took it all the way to the Minnesota Supreme Court, where the Court agreed with plaintiffs and instructed the lower court to enter judgment on the plaintiffs' behalf on this claim.

In Boaz v. Federal Express Customer Info. Services, Inc., 725 F.3d 603 (6th Cir. 2013), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit ruled that plaintiff, a FedEx project manager who had claimed that FedEx had failed to pay her overtime wages, in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, and paid her less than male coworkers performing the same job, in violation of the Equal Pay Act, could pursue her overtime and gender discrimination claims. The federal laws at issue provide employees three years to file a lawsuit and FedEx had plaintiff sign an application which stated that lawsuits had to be brought within 6 months or claims were lost. The lower court had dismissed plaintiff's claims, citing the application. The Sixth Circuit unanimously sided with plaintiff, reversed the dismissal and remanded the case for trial.

In Calderon v. GEICO General Insurance Co., 809 F.3d 111 (4th Cir. 2015), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit affirmed a district court's grant of affirmative summary judgment in favor of approximately one hundred current and former Security Investigators, finding that they were not covered by the administrative exemption. Specifically, the Appellate Court found that plaintiffs' primary job duty was not the performance of work directly related to general business operations.

In Lass v. Bank of America, N.A., 695 F.3d 129 (1st Cir. 2012), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit struck down the district court's ruling that had dismissed plaintiff's claims. The court found that plaintiff's allegations regarding excessive flood insurance and improper kickbacks had been properly alleged and that the case should proceed.

In Kasten v. Saint-Gobain Performance Plastics Corp., 131 S. Ct. 1325 (2011), the U.S. Supreme Court found in favor of the plaintiff and held that "an oral complaint of a violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act is protected conduct under the [Act's] anti-retaliation provision." This was a huge win for employees all over the country, as the Supreme Court's decision set a new FLSA anti-retaliation standard.

| Trial Verdicts and Arbitration Awards

In Contreras v. Prime Retail Comms, LLC, AAA No. 01-22-0001-1326 (Nov. 26, 2023) an arbitrator awarded an individual Claimant $80,891.80 in unpaid overtime damages. Claimant worked as a store manager at one of Prime's retail stores that sold AT&T products. The arbitrator held that Prime suffered and permitted him to work off-the-clock in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act. In a subsequent order, the arbitrator awarded Claimant's Counsel $120,631.91 in attorneys' fees and costs for the matter.

In Rao v. St. Jude Medical S.C., Inc. et al. No. 19-cv-923 (DTS) (D. Minn. Oct. 19, 2023), a jury awarded a medical device sales representative $39,030 in damages after finding that St. Jude breached his employment agreement and retaliated against him for participating in an internal investigation into a hostile work environment. The jury found against St. Jude on its counterclaim alleging that Rao violated a non-compete agreement.

In Sanders v. BNSF Railroad Co., No. 17-cv-5106 (D. Minn. Dec. 16, 2021), following an eight-day trial, a jury in St. Paul, Minnesota awarded Plaintiff Don Sanders, a former track inspector with BNSF Railway Company, over $9.4 million in damages. The jury found that Sanders was retaliated against in violation of the Federal Railway Safety Act after he reported hazardous safety conditions on the railroad and reported harassment and retaliation to BNSF's Human Resources department. The jury awarded Sanders $611,797 in lost wages, $250,000 in emotional distress, and $8,600,000 in punitive damages.

In Campbell v. Union Pacific., No. 18-cv-00522, (D. Id. Apr. 12, 2021), following a five-day trial in Pocatello, Idaho, a jury returned a $3.8 million verdict in favor of former Union Pacific employee, Thomas Campbell. The jury found in favor of Campbell on both his ADA discrimination and failure to accommodate claims. The jury awarded Campbell $312,591.23 in front pay, $2,500,000 in compensatory damages, and $1,000,000 in punitive damages.

In Cummings v. Chevron Corp., JAMS Case No. 1100086694 (June 8, 2018), an arbitrator issued a final award in the amount of $511,533.95 in favor of Donnie Cummings, a Well Site Supervisor who worked for Chevron. The arbitrator ruled that Chevron misclassified Cummings as an independent contractor and also misclassified him as exempt from the overtime provisions of state and federal law. The arbitrator awarded Cummings $284,270.15 in unpaid overtime, liquidated damages, and meal and rest period premiums, and awarded attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $227,263.80.

In Kaiser v. Gortmaker et al., No. 15-cv-01030, (D.S.D. Dec. 21, 2017) following a five-day trial in Aberdeen, South Dakota, a six-person jury returned a $1.2 million verdict in favor of former South Dakota Division of Criminal Investigation agent, Laura Zylstra-Kaiser. At the conclusion of trial, the jury found in favor of Kaiser on both her retaliation and gender discrimination claims. The jury awarded Kaiser $311,812.00 in lost wages, $498,929.00 in lost retirement benefits, and $400,000.00 in emotional distress damages.

In Clark v. Centene Company of Texas, LP, 104 F. Supp. 3d 813 (W.D. Tex. 2015), upon the conclusion of a bench trial, the court awarded damages to a collective action of utilization review nurses. The court found that plaintiffs submitted sufficient evidence to create a just and reasonable inference as to overtime hours worked by the collective and awarded liquidated damages. This victory followed the court's order on the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment and defendant's motion for decertification last year, holding that the defendant misclassified its utilization nurses. 44 F. Supp. 3d 674 (W.D. Tex. 2014). The court ruled that plaintiffs are not exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act's overtime laws and are thus eligible for overtime pay. The court further held that defendant's claim that each plaintiff's claim would need to be analyzed individually to determine liability and damages was without merit.

In Rhodes v. CashCall, JAMS Ref. No. 1200047475, Garcia v. CashCall, JAMS Ref. No. 1200047422, Good v. CashCall, JAMS Ref. No. 1200047220, and Green v. CashCall, Inc., JAMS Ref. No. 1200047225 (2014), a JAMS arbitrator ruled that CashCall misclassified Rhodes and Green, loan processors, and Garcia and Good, underwriters, as exempt from the overtime requirements of California and federal law. The arbitrator awarded Rhodes $15,000 in unpaid overtime plus an additional $15,000 in liquidated damages, along with $88,179 in attorneys' fees and costs, Green was awarded $15,067.72 in damages, as well as $54,165.50 in attorneys' fees and costs. The arbitrator also awarded Garcia $10,000 in unpaid overtime plus an additional $10,000 in liquidated damages, along with $98,709 in attorneys' fees and costs, and Good was awarded $43,631 in unpaid overtime, as well as $50,627.49 in attorneys' fees and costs.

In Walsten v. Shank Power Products Co., Inc., No. 19HA-CV-12-1094 (D. Minn. Sept. 9, 2013), a minority shareholder case, an advisory jury returned a $700,000 verdict for the plaintiff, finding for him on his claims for breach of fiduciary duty and violation of his reasonable expectation of continuing employment. The trial judge subsequently issued an order sustaining the $700,000 advisory verdict and awarding $200,000 in attorneys' fees.

In Monroe v. FTS USA, LLC, No. 2:08-cv-21 (W.D. Tenn. Oct. 2011), the jury found that defendants willfully violated the Fair Labor Standards Act by failing to pay nearly 300 cable installers for all overtime hours worked. The district court entered judgment with damages for the plaintiffs.

| Summary Adjudication

In Rao v. St. Jude Medical S.C., Inc., File No. 19-cv-923 (D. Minn. Sept. 27, 2022), the district court denied Defendants' motion for summary judgment in part, finding that there were triable issues of material fact on Plaintiff's retaliation, age discrimination, and breach of contract claims. The court granted Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment in part, dismissing Defendant's counterclaim that Plaintiff breached a confidentiality agreement, and limiting Defendant's counterclaim related to violation of a non-compete agreement to where Defendants could show alleged damages.

In T.B. et al. v. Independent School District No. 112, No. 19-cv-2414 (D. Minn. Aug. 1, 2022), the district court denied defendant school district's motion for summary judgment, finding that there were triable issues of material fact as to whether the district violated two students' civil rights by maintaining a racially hostile environment within its schools, failing to adequately respond to reports of race discrimination, and failing to provide school staff with proper training on how to respond to incidents of race discrimination.

In Oman v. Delta Air Lines, Inc., --- F.Supp.3d ----, 2022 WL 4596624 (N.D. Cal. July 8, 2022), the court granted plaintiffs' motion summary judgment on their wage statement claims under Labor Code Section 226, holding that Delta knowingly and intentionally violated California law after it exhausted appeals and failed to correct its wage statements.

In K.R. et al. v. Duluth Edison Public Schools Academy, No. 19-cv-00999 (D. Minn. Mar. 16, 2022), the district court denied defendant school district's motion for summary judgment, finding that there were triable issues of material fact as to whether the district violated two students' civil rights under Title VI, the Minnesota Human Rights Act, and the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution pursuant to Section 1983.

In Mass v. Regents of the University of California, No. RG17879223 (Cal. Super. Ct., Alameda Cnty. Nov. 19, 2021), the court denied defendants' motion for summary judgment, finding that there were triable issues of material fact as to whether defendants as trustee/plan administrator owed a duty to the UCRP beneficiaries and the contours of any such duty, whether defendants breached the alleged owed duty, and whether any breach by defendants caused members of the class to suffer any injury.

In Deluca v. Farmers Ins. Exchange, 386 F.Supp.3d 1235 (N.D. Cal. 2019), the court granted in part Plaintiffs' affirmative summary judgment motion and denied Defendant's summary judgment motion. The court found that Farmers could not satisfy either duties prong of the administrative exemption. As a result, the court determined that plaintiffs and class members were misclassified as exempt under state and federal law and are entitled to overtime premiums.

In Rego v. Liberty Mutual Managed Care, LLC, 367 F. Supp. 3d 849 (E.D. Wis. 2019), the court found as a matter of law that a defendant insurance company misclassified its utilization management nurses as exempt from overtime protections under the administrative and the professional exemptions. The plaintiffs primary job duty consisted of reviewing medical authorization requests against well-established guidelines to determine whether the criteria for medical necessity are satisfied. The court held in part that this work involved the performance of routine mental work, likened to inspection-type duties as opposed to bedside nursing.

In Henderson v. 1400 Northside Drive, Inc., No. 1:13-cv-3767, 2016 WL 3125012 (N.D. Ga. June 3, 2016), the district court granted in part Plaintiffs' affirmative motion for summary judgment on the issues of: (1) whether the owner qualified as a joint employer, (2) the viability of the defendants' counterclaims, and (3) whether minimum wage damages includes recovery for fines, fees, and tipouts paid by the employee to the employer. In an earlier order, the court also granted plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment on the issues of: (1) the creative professional exemption, finding that defendants misclassified adult entertainers as exempt from the overtime and minimum wage requirements of the FLSA; and (2) offset, finding that defendants could not offset their minimum wage obligations with tips paid by customers to adult entertainers. 110 F. Supp. 3d 1318 (N.D. Ga. 2015).

In Vaughan v. M-Enterm't Props., LLC, No. 1:14-CV-914, 2016 WL 7365201 (N.D. Ga. Mar. 15, 2016), the district court granted in part exotic dancer plaintiffs' affirmative motion for summary judgment on the issues of (1) whether entertainers qualify as employees under the FLSA, (2) whether related entity defendants qualified as joint employers, (3) the viability of the defendants' offset defense, and (4) the viability of the defendants' counterclaims.

In Heaton v. Social Finance, Inc., No. 3:14-cv-05191-the, 2015 WL 6003119 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 15, 2015), the court denied defendants' motion for summary judgment, finding that there were triable issues of fact as to whether defendants had violated the statutes at issue, whether the alleged violations were willful, and finding that defendants had failed to meet their burden as to plaintiffs' claims under the California Unfair Competition Law.

In Hart v. Rick's Cabaret Int'l, Inc., No. 09-Civ-3043, 2014 WL 6238175 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 14, 2014), the court denied decertification of the FLSA Collective and Rule 23 Class of approximately 2,300 adult entertainers at Rick's Cabaret in New York and granted, in part, plaintiffs' affirmative motion for partial summary judgment on damages, finding that no reasonable jury could conclude the Class was owed less than $10.8 million. This significant ruling came approximately one year after the court ruled that the Class and Collective Members are employees as a matter of law under the FLSA and New York Labor Law and that Rick's Cabaret violated both laws by failing to pay wages. The court further held that the money entertainers received from Rick's Cabaret's customers were tips and not service charges that could offset wage obligations and that Rick's Cabaret violated New York Labor Law by charging Class and Collective Members fines and fees as a condition of employment. 967 F. Supp. 2d 901 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 10, 2013).

In Wolfram v. PHH Corp., No. 1:12-cv-599, 2014 WL 2737990 (S.D. Ohio June 17, 2014), the court granted plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment, finding that the assigned real estate offices from where plaintiffs, who are current or former loan officers employed by defendant, worked where all serving as the "employer's place of business" under the outside sales exemption of the Fair Labor Standards Act. This established that an employee may work from multiple sites, not technically owned or operated by the employer, and each of those sites can be considered the "employer's place of business" under the regulations, therefore any work performed at these sites is not "outside" work under the outside sales exemption.

In MacIntyre v. Lender Processing Services, Inc., No. 3:13-cv-89-J-25JBT (M.D. Fla. Apr. 29, 2014), the court granted affirmative summary judgment to plaintiff (a Minnesota resident) on a breach of contract claim for an unpaid bonus and used its discretion to enforce Minnesota state law for defendant's (a Florida company) failure to promptly pay wages. The court simultaneously denied defendant's motion to dismiss plaintiff's gender discrimination claims ruling, in part, that defendant's actions toward plaintiff constituted direct evidence of gender discrimination.

In Huff v. Pinstripes, Inc., 972 F. Supp. 2d 1065 (D. Minn. 2013), the court ruled in plaintiffs' favor on cross-motions for summary judgment, finding that Pinstripes had violated the Minnesota Fair Labor Standards Act's provisions on tip-pooling by requiring its servers to share their tips with "server assistants," who act as servers' support staff at the restaurant.

In Ernst v. DISH Network, LLC, No. 12-8794-LGS (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 22, 2014), the court ruled on plaintiff's and two of the defendants' cross-motions for partial summary judgment, granting plaintiff's motion and denying defendants' motion. The court ruled that the summary report received by two of the defendants was a "consumer report" for purposes of the Fair Credit Reporting Act because it "communicated information bearing on Plaintiff's character, general reputation, or mode of living, and the information was collected and expected to be used for 'employment purposes.'"

In Kirsch v. St. Paul Motorsports, Inc., No. 11-cv-02624, 2013 WL 1900620 (D. Minn. May 7, 2013), the court denied defendants' motion for summary judgment in its entirety, finding that plaintiff had put forth sufficient evidence for a prima facie claim of age discrimination.

In Bollinger v. Residential Capital, 863 F. Supp. 2d 1041 (W.D. Wash. 2012), the court granted plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment, finding that defendants misclassified the underwriter plaintiffs under the administrative exemption, and rejected defendants' argument that there was no evidence of willful violation of the FLSA, stating that "a jury could conclude that Defendants knowingly and recklessly" misclassified plaintiffs.

In Clinicy v. Galardi South Enterprises, Inc., 808 F. Supp. 2d 1326 (N.D. Ga. 2011), the court granted plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment on the issue of misclassification, finding that defendants misclassified adult entertainers as independent contractors and that the entertainers were in fact employees covered by the FLSA.

| Class and Collective Certification

In Costa v. Apple, Inc., No. 23-cv-01353-WHO (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2023) the court granted Plaintiffs' motion for the distribution of judicial notice to over 47,000 hourly employees. Plaintiffs' contended that Apple's failure to include the value of vested restricted stock units in the overtime rate of pay, violated the law.

In Brayman v. Keypoint Government Solutions, No. 18-cv-550-WJM-NRN Dkt 365 (D. Colo. Mar. 31, 2022) the court granted Plaintiffs' Amended Motion for Final Certification of the FLSA Collective and Plaintiffs' Amended Motion for Rule 23 Class Certification and denied Defendant's Amended Motion for Decertification. The court found that the material terms of Plaintiffs' employment, including policies and practices to which they were uniformly subjected to, as well as the similarities of the Plaintiffs' job functions, weighed in favor of finding Plaintiffs to be similarly situated for purposes of maintaining an FLSA collective. Further, Plaintiffs met all four requirements of a Rule 23 class and the court found that all class members' claims arise from the same course of conduct favoring certification and granted Plaintiffs' Motion for Rule 23 Class Certification.

In MacDonald, et al. v. CashCall, Inc., et al., No. 2:16-cv-02781-MCA-ESK, Dkt 102 (D. N.J. Oct. 31, 2019) the court granted Plaintiffs' motion for class certification and appointed Nichols Kaster, PLLP class counsel in case involving more than 11,000 borrowers where Defendants are alleged to have violated usury law, the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act, and RICO.

In Brotherston v. Putnam Investments, LLC, No. 1:15-cv-13825 (D. Mass. Dec. 13, 2016), the court certified a class of current and former participants in the Putnam Retirement Plan and appointed Nichols Kaster as class counsel. Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants mismanaged the plan and engaged in prohibited transactions in breach of their fiduciary duties under ERISA.

In Harris v. Union Pac. R.R. Co., 329 F.R.D. 616, 620 (D. Neb. 2019), Nichols Kaster won class certification and was appointed class counsel for a class of over 7,000 railroad employees who plaintiffs alleged had been removed from their jobs in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act

In Ayala v. GEICO, No. 7:18-cv-03583 (Dec. 5, 2018), the district court certified a collective class under the FLSA for Auto Adjuster Trainees who alleged they were not paid for all their overtime worked during training.

In Bell v. Michigan Civil Service Commission and Jan Winters, State Personnel Director, No. 17-003861-CV (Mich. Cir. Ct., Nov. 17, 2018), Nichols Kaster won class certification and was appointed class counsel for a class of over 600 African American applicants who plaintiffs alleged had been discriminated against by defendants through the use of their entry-level law enforcement examination.

In Dunham-Sunde v. The Copper Hen Cakery, No. 27-CV-17-17288 (D. Minn., Aug. 28, 2018), the court certified a class of over one hundred restaurant servers to pursue claims against a local restaurant for its unlawful tip-sharing practices in violation of the Minnesota Fair Labor Standards Act.

In Deluca v. Farmers Ins. Exch., No. 17-cv-00034, 2018 WL 1981393 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 27, 2018), the court granted class certification of California state law overtime claims and related claims for a group of special investigators who allege that Farmers misclassified them as exempt from overtime. The court previously granted conditional certification of the plaintiffs' FLSA overtime claims.

In Wildman v. American Century Serv., LLC, 2017 WL 6045487 (W.D. Mo. Dec. 6, 2017), the court certified a class of current and former participants in the American Century Retirement Plan and appointed Nichols Kaster as class counsel. Plaintiffs alleged that defendants breached their fiduciary duties and engaged in prohibited transactions.

In Ganci v. MBF Inspection Svcs., Inc., 323 F.R.D. 249 (S.D. Ohio 2017), the court granted class certification of a class of pipeline inspectors who worked for MBF and were paid based on a day rate, who sought unpaid overtime under Ohio state law. The court had previously granted conditional collective certification of the plaintiffs' FLSA overtime claims. 2016 WL 5104891 (S.D. Ohio Sept. 20, 2016).

In Moreno v. Deutsche Bank Americas Holding Corp., 1:15-cv-09936, 2017 WL 3868803 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 5, 2017), the court certified a class of current and former participants in the Deutsche Bank Matched Savings Plan and appointed Nichols Kaster as class counsel. Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants mismanaged the plan in breach of their fiduciary duties under ERISA.

In Sims v. BB&T Corp., No. 1:15-cv-732, 2017 WL 3730552 (M.D.N.C. Aug. 28, 2017), the district court certified a class of current and former participants in the BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan and appointed Nichols Kaster as co-class counsel. Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to the Plan.

In Urakhchin v. Allianz Asset Mgmt. of Am., L.P., 8:15-cv-01614, 2017 WL 2655678 (C.D. Cal. June 15, 2017), the district court certified a class of current and former participants in the Allianz Asset Management of America L.P. 401(k) Savings and Retirement Plan and appointed Nichols Kaster as class counsel. Plaintiffs alleged that defendants improperly managed plan assets and breached their fiduciary duties.

In Mayfield-Dillard v. Direct Home Health Care, Inc., No. 0:16-cv-3489, 2017 WL 945087 (D. Minn. Mar. 10, 2017), the district court granted Plaintiffs' motion for conditional certification, certifying a group of home health care workers who challenged Defendant's practice of paying straight-time only, for overtime hours worked.

In McQueen v. Chevron, No. C 16-02089, 2017 WL 8948943 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 21, 2017), the Court granted conditional certification of an FLSA collective for well site managers and drill site managers who performed services for Chevron throughout the country, rejecting Chevron's arguments that the various intermediary staffing companies and differing contractual terms put the workers on different footing.

In Tamez v. BHP Billiton Petroleum (Americas), Inc., No. 5:15-cv-330, 2015 WL 7075971 (W.D. Tex. Oct. 5, 2015), the court granted plaintiffs' motion for conditional certification, conditionally certifying a class of employees alleging violations of the overtime wage provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act by a multinational corporation that produces major commodities including oil and gas.

In Miller v. Fleetcor Technologies Operating Co., LLC, 118 F. Supp. 3d 1351 (N.D. Ga. 2015), the court denied defendant's motion for decertification, agreeing with plaintiffs that each individual claim and the case as a whole should be kept together, allowing plaintiffs to move forward as a collective group.

In Pearsall-Dineen v. Freedom Mortgage Corp., No. 13-cv-06836-JEI-JS, 2014 WL 2873878 (D. N.J. June 25, 2014), the court conditionally certified the Fair Labor Standards Act overtime case as a collective action. The judge's order authorized notice of the lawsuit to be disseminated to all mortgage underwriters who worked for Freedom Mortgage in the last three years, providing them the opportunity to join the lawsuit and to assert their overtime claims against the defendant for failing to pay them overtime hours.

In Ellsworth v. U.S. Bank, N.A., No. C 12-2506-LB, 2014 WL 2734953 (N.D. Cal. June 13, 2014), the court issued a broad class certification ruling on behalf of plaintiff-borrowers who were force-placed with flood insurance. In its order, the court certified multi-state classes of borrowers spanning forty different states to pursue claims against U.S. Bank for breach of their mortgage agreements stemming from U.S. Bank's force-placed insurance practices. In addition, the court separately certified classes of borrowers in California and New Mexico to pursue claims against U.S. Bank and its force-placed insurance vendor, ASIC, for unjust enrichment, unfair business practices, and/or breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

In Arnett v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:11-cv-01372-SI (D. Or. Apr. 17, 2014), the court preliminarily approved a $31 million settlement for approximately 625,000 class members, the largest common fund settlement ever negotiated in a case involving force-placed flood insurance.

In Ernst v. DISH Network, LLC, No. 12-8794-LGS (S.D.N.Y. July 23, 2013), the court appointed Nichols Kaster as interim class counsel for the putative class with claims against Defendant Sterling Infosystems, Inc., finding that Nichols Kaster had "demonstrated it is able fairly and adequately to represent the interests of the putative class.

In Gustafson v. BAC Home Loan Services, LP, No. 8:11-cv-00915 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 27, 2013), Judge Josephine Staton Tucker appointed Nichols Kaster as co-lead interim class counsel for multiple putative classes in a force-placed insurance case against Bank of America and other defendants.

In Spar v. Cedar Towing & Auction, Inc., Case No. 27-CV-11-24993 (D. Minn., Oct. 16, 2012), Nichols Kaster won class certification and was appointed class counsel for a class of approximately six thousand Minneapolis consumers who plaintiffs alleged had been charged illegal towing fees by defendant.

| Denial of Motions to Dismiss

In Padilla v. Caliper Building Systems, LLC et al., No. 20-cv-00658 (SRN/KMM) (D. Minn., Sept. 21, 2020) the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, holding that construction laborers working for a framing subcontractor through a labor broker plausibly alleged facts supporting joint employer status under federal and state law.

In Jane Doe 1 et al v. Independent School District 31, No. 20-cv-226 (SRN/LIB) (D. Minn. Aug. 14, 2020) the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, finding that plaintiffs pled sufficient facts to support plausible Title IX, Section 1983, negligence, negligent supervision, and negligent retention claims. Specifically, the court found that the complaint plausibly alleged a duty of care arising from a special relationship between the school district and plaintiffs, taking into account the elevated status of the school official who sexually exploited plaintiffs, the egregiousness of the sexual exploitation that occurred on district-owned devices, and the fact that the district had clear notice. Further, the court found that plaintiffs plausibly alleged that the district's own conduct created a foreseeable risk of injury to plaintiffs and that the district owed them a duty to prevent the sexual harassment and bullying faced by plaintiffs after the school official's arrest. Additionally, the court held that the complaint plausibly alleged that the district acted with deliberate indifference, resulting in a hostile education environment and peer harassment under Title IX and Section 1983. Finally, plaintiffs sufficiently alleged a pattern of constitutional violations that put the district on notice that "its employees' responses to recurring sex discrimination were insufficient to protect Plaintiffs' constitutional rights."

In Intravaia v. National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, No. 1:19-CV-973, 2020 WL 58276 (E.D. Va. Jan. 2, 2020), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in full, holding plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty and prohibited transactions under ERISA relating to the administration of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association's 401(k) plan.

In Reetz v. Lowe's Companies, Inc., No. 518CV00075, 2019 WL 4233616 (W.D.N.C. Sept. 6, 2019), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part, holding plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of the Lowe's 401(k) plan.

In Karpik v. Huntington Bancshares Inc., No. 2:17-CV-1153, 2019 WL 7482134 (S.D. Ohio Sept. 26, 2019), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part and held that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management and monitoring of Huntington Bank's 401(k) plan.

In Belt v. P.F. Chang's, No. 18-cv-03831 (E.D. Pa. Aug. 15, 2019), the court denied defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings, holding that the DOL's new interpretation of the FLSA was unreasonable and not subject to deference, confirming that Plaintiffs had stated a claim for minimum wage violations due to P.F. Chang's failing to pay its servers the full minimum wage when they performed related yet untipped labor, such as side work, for more than 20% of their time in a workweek.

In Nelsen v. Principal Global Investors Trust Co., No. 4:18-cv-00115 (S.D. Iowa, Jan. 24, 2019), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part, holding plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of Principal's collective investment trusts.

In In re M&T Bank Corp. ERISA Litig., No. 16-cv-375, 2018 WL 4334807 (W.D.N.Y. Sept. 11, 2018), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part, holding plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of the M&T Bank Corporation Retirement Savings Plan.

In Velazquez v. Massachusetts Fin. Servs. Co., 320 F. Supp. 3d 252 (D. Mass. 2018), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part and held that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of the Massachusetts Financial Services Company MFSavings Retirement Plan and the Massachusetts Financial Services Company Defined Contribution Plan.

In Beach v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, No. 1:17-cv-00563 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 28, 2018), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part and held that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA.

In Wildman v. American Century Serv., LLC, 237 F. Supp. 3d 902 (W.D. Mo. 2017), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss, finding that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty and prohibited transactions by defendants in connection with the American Century Retirement Plan.

In Johnson v. Fujitsu Technology Business of America, Inc., 250 F. Supp. 3d 460 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 11, 2017), the court denied defendants' motions to dismiss, and held that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of the Fujitsu Group Defined Contribution and 401(k) Plan.

In Moreno v. Deutsche Bank Americas Holding Corp., 1:15-cv-09936, 2016 WL 5957307 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 13, 2016), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part and held that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of the Deutsche Bank Matched Savings Plan.

In Urakhchin v. Allianz Asset Mgmt. of Am., L.P., 8:15-cv-01614, 2016 WL 4507119 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 5, 2016), the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in substantial part and held that plaintiffs adequately alleged breaches of fiduciary duty under ERISA relating to the management of the Allianz Asset Management of America L.P. 401(k) Savings and Retirement Plan.

In Bowers v. BB&T Corporation, No. 1:15-cv-732-CCE-JEP (M.D.N.C. Apr. 18, 2016), the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, finding that plaintiff's allegations regarding Employment Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA") violations related to defendant's management of plaintiffs' 401(k) Savings Plans are sufficient for litigation to move forward.

In Brotherston v. Putnam Investments, LLC, No. 1:15-cv-13825, 2016 WL 1397427 (D. Mass. Apr. 7, 2016), the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, finding that plaintiff's allegations regarding Employment Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA") violations related to defendant's management of plaintiffs' 401(k) Savings Plans are sufficient for litigation to move forward.

In Johnson v. Casey's Gen. Stores, Inc., 116 F. Supp. 3d 944 (W.D. Mo. 2015), the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, finding that plaintiff's allegations regarding Fair Credit Reporting Act violations and the willfulness of defendant's conduct sufficient for litigation to move forward.

In Lengel v. HomeAdvisor, Inc., 102 F. Supp. 3d 1202 (D. Kan. 2015), the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, finding that plaintiff's allegations regarding Fair Credit Report Act violations and the willfulness of defendant's conduct sufficient for litigation to move forward.

In Holmes v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:12-cv-00487, 2013 WL 2317722 (W.D.N.C. May 28, 2013), the court denied four motions to dismiss plaintiffs' claims regarding force-placed insurance and allowing the case to proceed.

In Walls v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., No. 3:11-cv-00673, 2012 WL 3096660 (W.D. Ky. July 30, 2012), a case regarding force-placed flood insurance, the court denied defendant's motion to dismiss, stating that the plaintiff's mortgage agreement did not explicitly provide that the lender's flood insurance requirement could change at will and that Kentucky contracts contain provisions which can impose limits on discretion afforded by a contract, thus rejecting defendant's interpretation of plaintiff's mortgage agreement for purposes of the motion.

Matthew C. Helland is an experienced and tenacious litigator who has fought for workers' and consumers' rights throughout his career. Matt serves as the managing partner of Nichols Kaster's San Francisco office, where he focuses his practice on class and collective wage and hour cases filed in California and throughout the country. Handling both large class actions and individual matters throughout this career, Matt has developed a record of success in significant and complex litigation. Matt litigates each of his cases with the same zealous advocacy and passionate protection of his clients' rights, whether the case involves millions of dollars and thousands of clients, or thousands of dollars and one individual. In addition to representing workers across the country in wage and hour actions, Matt has also handled cases involving WARN Act violations, breach of contract, and severance negotiations. Matt is licensed in both California and Minnesota. Matt is an active volunteer at Workers' Rights Clinics through Legal Aid Work, where he supervises student attorneys in providing legal assistance to low wage workers. While attending the University of Minnesota Law School, Matt was a staff member and Managing Tribute Editor of the University of Minnesota Journal of Global Trade. He also participated in the Child Advocacy Clinic, representing the interests of children as a student attorney in both Family and Juvenile Court. Education: B.A. Rhodes College 2002 magna cum laude, J.D. University of Minnesota Law School 2005 magna cum laude.

James H. Kaster is a Civil Trial Law Specialist who has tried well over 100 cases to verdict or decision. He has also handled many significant cases on appeal, including a successful case in front of the United States Supreme Court (Kasten v. Saint-Gobain Performance Plastics Corp.). He was ranked by Chambers USA as number one among plaintiffs' employment lawyers in Minnesota, was named Lawyer of the Year by Best Lawyers in 2012, and 2016, and has been listed by Super Lawyers of Minnesota as one of the top 10 lawyers in the State. Jim's success in the courtroom includes earning many million dollar and multi-million dollar recoveries for plaintiffs. Jim is also a frequent lecturer before local, state, and national organizations on damage recovery and trial skills. He was selected as a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a premier professional trial organization in America whose membership is limited to 1% of the trial lawyers in any state or province. Lucas J. Kaster is a skilled and seasoned trial lawyer focused on aggressive advocacy, creative solutions, and responsiveness to clients. As a member of Nichols Kaster's individual rights team, Lucas represents clients in a wide-range of employment matters, including harassment, retaliation and discrimination claims. Lucas also represents clients in civil rights claims, such as police misconduct and prisoner rights. Over his career, Lucas has tried many cases to verdict or decision. Most recently, Lucas represented a South Dakota law enforcement officer in a retaliation and sexual harassment lawsuit that resulted in a $1.2 million jury verdict. In a separate lawsuit, Lucas represented four golf course employees who were subject to harassment and retaliation in a court trial that resulted in a plaintiff's verdict and treble damages under the Minnesota Human Rights Act ("MHRA"). Lucas uses this unique trial experience to drive litigation strategy and provide his clients the best possible representation. Lucas is also an experienced appellate advocate. In 2018, Lucas successfully argued before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Michael Frost v. BNSF Railway Co., 9:15-cv-000124-DWM. The Ninth Circuit's decision addressed a hotly debated subject under the Federal Railway Safety Act ("FRSA"). The question before the Court was whether the honest belief instruction was proper because the FRSA's contributing factor standard required plaintiffs to separately prove discriminatory intent. In the opinion, the Ninth Circuit definitively held that there is no requirement that FRSA plaintiffs separately prove discriminatory intent, and thus the instruction was error. Due to his experience, Lucas is a well-respected and sought-after speaker. Lucas is a frequent presenter at the ABA's Labor and Employment and Employment Rights and Responsibilities conferences. In February 2019, Lucas also spoke at the College of Labor and Employment Lawyer's Regional Program for the 4th and 11th Circuits in Charleston, South Carolina. Lucas participated in a three-member panel titled: The #MeToo Movement One Year Later: Where Are We Now? Lucas is a member Twin Cities Diversity in Practice's Emerging Leaders Group and a contributor to Nichols Kaster's training and marketing committees. Education: B.A. Villanova University 2004, J.D. Marquette University Law School 2011.
